Getting Around In Chicago

From the airport to the hotels:

CTA Trains to the city cost $1.75. To ride the train, you must purchase a CTA cards with cash from machines at any CTA station. You will not receive change from the machine. Busses cost $2 and you may use either cash or remaining funds on your CTA card (sold at train stations).

From O'Hare

Take the BLUE LINE train (the station is in the airport on the lower level, just follow signs) towards Chicago (it dead-ends at O'hare, so you only have one option).

Option 1- trains- Ambassador East guests) Take Blue Line to Monroe, and transfer to Red Line Northbound towards Howard. Get off at Clark/Division for the Ambassador East. Then walk 2 blocks east to State and 1 block north to Goethe to get to the hotel (see map).

Option 2 – train and bus) Take Blue Line to Washington. Walk up to the street which will be Dearborn. Take the #22 bus or the #36 bus north. For the Ambassador East get off at Goethe and walk 2 blocks East to your hotel. For the Belden-Stratford get off at Belden. Walk 2 blocks east to your hotel. For the Days Inn Lincoln Park North get off at Diversey, your hotel is at the corner. Make sure to request your stop.

From Midway

Take the ORANGE LINE train Northbound (towards Loop). Get off at Clark/Lake walk 2 blocks east to Dearborn. Take the #22 bus or the #36 bus north. For the Ambassador East get off at Goethe and walk 2 blocks east to your hotel. For the Belden-Stratford get off at Belden and walk 2 blocks east to your hotel. For the Days Inn Lincoln Park North get off at Diversey, your hotel is at the corner.

From the hotels to Café Brauer (Conference Location):

Café Brauer is on the southwest side of the zoo (near the 'Farm in the Zoo'), off of Stockton Drive (which runs through the park), and near the major intersection of N. Clark St. and W. ArmitageAve.

On Foot

Ambassador East hotel is about 0.6 miles from the Café-Brauer –a decent 10-15 minute walk North. See map.
